MULTICULTURAL INFORMATION:

A Selected Bibliography of Ministry Materials

December, 1983

Prepared By: Citizenship Development Branch
Ministry of Citizenship and Culture
77 Bloor Street West
Toronto, Ontario
M7A 2R9

As part of its commitment to furthering intercultural understanding and responsible citizenship, the Citizenship Development Branch of the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture maintains and continually adds to an extensive collection of books and periodicals covering the broad subject of multiculturalism. It is our hope that, in making available this selected listing of materials, individuals interested in learning more about this field will become aware of and utilize the range of resources available to them through the Ministry's Resource Centre.

Users interested in more comprehensive information on the subjects covered in this Bibliography and in other, related subjects should contact the

Resource Centre

Hours: 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Monday - Friday

With the exception of periodicals and reference tools, materials listed in this bibliography may be loaned, free of charge, to Ontario residents. Borrowers from the Toronto area are advised to contact the Resource Centre in person or by phone. Users outside Toronto may contact the Resource Centre through the Ministry Regional Services Offices as well as by phone or letter. A maximum of two items may be borrowed at one time. The loan period for the Toronto area is two weeks. Out-of-town borrowers may have a maximum of two items mailed to them for a loan period of four weeks; however, the borrower is expected to cover the cost of return mailing. Alternatively, items may also be returned to the nearest Regional Services Office. Materials may also be requested by the inter-library loan service of public or community college libraries.

Additional copies of this Bibliography are available from the Resource Centre.
